Clear County Judge of Charge

Randall County Judge Roy Joe Stevens and three Amarillo men were cleared of charges of a conspiracy to commit murder by order of the 47th District Court Monday morning. Those cleared with Judge Stevens were Attorney George S. McCarthy, Airman William Gerald Miller and bondsman Harold Erlandson. The order dismissing the indictment was signed by Judge Gene Jordan after a petition requesting the order was introduced by Potter County District Attorney Wayne Bagley.

The setting for Monday morning's action was on the fourth floor of the Potter County Court house. At the north end of the central hall is the 47th District Courtroom. At the south end is the 108th District courtroom.

In the southeast corner is a suite of four offices for the Potter County District Attorney, and across the west side of the building, with a door in the center, is the clerk's office serving the two district courts.

At the center on the east side is a stairway, with the elevator doors nearby. All along the west side of the hallway are benches for witnesses and prospective jurors to sit in while waiting.

Monday morning there were around 300 people milling in the hall and the two courtrooms. The 47th District Court had ordered a special venire of 200 to hear three capital cases. The 108th District Court had a small jury panel to hear civil cases.

There were a number of people called as witnesses in the various cases, and there were attorneys. Buzzing through the hub-dub were reports from newspapers and radio and television stations. Accompanying them were still and movie photographers.

Judge Gene Jordan was presiding in the 47th courtroom Monday morning, beginning at 9 a. m. Judge E. C. Nelson was presiding in the 108th courtroom, beginning at 10 a. m.

In Judge Nelson's courtroom were George McCarthy, accused in the murder conspiracy indictment, and his attorneys, Col. E. A. Simpson, Bill McConnell and S. F. Rose. They had been in a conference

"The bribe conspiracy indictment will be tried," District Attorney Wayne Bagley said Monday afternoon. "There is a very good case against all five defendants. It may be necessary for a change of venue."

He said the venue change might be necessary because of the "notoriety" of the defendants and the charge itself. The case has been set for trial April 20.

with District Attorney Wayne Bagley around 9, and had gone from there to Judge Nelson's office, located in the southwest corner of the building behind the courtroom.

At about 9:40, they went to the district clerk's office along with Bagley, and there they read the motion Bagley was filing to dismiss the indictment against all four of the defendants. After pictures were taken, they left the clerk's office.

Bagley turned north and went to the 47th courtroom. McCarthy and his attorneys went south to the 108th.

Bagley went into Judge Jordan's courtroom and handed him the petition. The judge read it, then read it aloud to all in the court.

He commented that it is a serious matter for the district attorney to ask for an indictment to be dismissed after it has been returned by a grand jury. He asked Bagley if he was satisfied that the State would be unable to prove the allegations in the indictment. Bagley answered "Yes, your honor," then the judge signed the order.

The McCarthy party was in the 108th courtroom at this time. In a few minutes, they were notified that the order had been signed, then they moved north to the 47th courtroom and took seats in front of the judge's bench.

Col. Simpson asked Judge Jordan if the order had been signed, and the judge said it had been. The attorney then asked if it included all of the four defendants, and the judge said it did. He said the attorney could read the order.

Col. Simpson, McConnell, Rose and McCarthy then went back to the 108th. At each move, they were followed by reporters.

In the 108th courtroom, Col. Simpson went into Judge Nelson's chambers, and members of the press were invited along. There, he began an explanation to Judge Nelson.

Col. Simpson said he wanted to explain to Judge Nelson about the actions of the morning, and to apologize. He said that McCarthy and his attorneys had been called in to the district attorney's office about 9 a. m. and were shown a motion for dismissal along with a statement.

Col. Simpson said he read the motion and told Bagley that if that particular motion was presented in court, he would fight it "from hell to breakfast."

Col. Simpson said he told Bagley that all that would come out of that motion would be that George McCarthy conspired to kill, but the district attorney did not have evidence to prove it. He said he told Bagley that the motion was saying that the case would have to be proved by circumstantial evidence and that the evidence wouldn't meet the circumstantial evidence rule that it must exclude all other reasonable hypothesis.

The colonel said Bagley told him that the oral statement (which was typed and is printed along with this story) would take care of such allegations, but that he (Simpson) said that would not do—"We want it clear cut."

Col. Simpson said he told Bagley that if Judge Nelson will stay with us we're going to force the case to trial and force the district attorney to present all his evidence.

The colonel said Bagley then asked what the colonel would suggest. Col. Simpson said he advised that the motion for dismissal should say that the Attorney General and laid all the evidence before him.

He said that he knew that the attorney general's office had told Bagley that the indictment was a "farce and a travesty on justice."

At that point, E. T. Miller, an assistant district attorney, interrupted and said the Col. Simpson's statement was for the press and not for Judge Nelson. He said that Col. Simpson's recounting of the meeting in Bagley's office was not accurate and Bagley should be present in Judge Nelson's chambers. Someone suggested Bagley be sent for, and Bagley showed up in a couple of minutes.

Judge Nelson then interposed and said the case was not in his hands.

★ ★ ★ The Motion

The following is the motion filed by Dist. Atty Wayne Bagley, asking for dismissal of the indictment against the four:

"The indictment returned and now pending in Cause No. 10258 charges the felony offense of conspiring to kill. Under this indictment it is incumbent on the State to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, all of the necessary allegations contained in the indictment. Under this indictment the State must prove, not only a positive agreement between those alleged to be conspirators, but the evidence must also prove beyond a reasonable doubt the intentions of that agreement to be, to kill Edgar Brannan.

"The gravamen of this offense therefore is a positive intent to kill. In this contention, the district attorney made a trip to Austin, Texas, to confer with the Attorney General and after examination of all evidence and law the Chief of the Criminal Division of the Attorney General's office concurred with the findings of the district attorney and held that under the law and the evidence no case could be made and recommended the dismissal of the cause."

At the center on the east side is a stairway, with the elevator doors nearby. All along the west side of the hallway are benches for witnesses and prospective jurors to sit in while waiting.

★ ★ ★ County Offices Set New Hours

A number of Randall County offices began observing new hours the middle of this week.

The new hours are from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. (including the lunch hour) from Monday through Friday. The offices will be closed on Saturday.

The offices that will observe the new schedule are the County Clerk, Tax Assessor-Collector and County Judge. The District Clerk and Criminal District Attorney have no plans at present to close on Saturday. The Treasurer's office will be open on Saturday when the press of business makes it necessary.

The South Amarillo office has been closing on Saturdays since Jan. 1, 1957. Hours in the courthouse before the new schedule have been 8:30 a. m. to noon and 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. on weekdays and 8:30 to noon on Saturday.

Dead is Troy Haynes, 15, who fell from the edge of Frying Pan Mesa in the central part of the park, near a narrow gauge railroad.

Witnesses said the boy was trying to break off a rock when the precipice broke off and he fell. It was more than an hour before rescuers brought the body down the rugged trail to a waiting ambulance.

Funeral rites were held Tuesday in the Church of Christ at Vernon. Burial was in the Vernon Cemetery under the direction of the Henderson Funeral Home, assisted by Warren-LaGrone Funeral Chapel.

It was the first death in Palo Duro Canyon this year, and the first since a Borger girl was killed last fall in a similar accident.

Gerdsen Services Held in Chapel

Funeral services for Mrs. Frieda Gerdsen, 78, were held at 2 p. m. Monday in the Warren-LaGrone Funeral Chapel, with the Rev. Andrew A. Szegedin, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, officiating.

Burial was in the Lutheran Cemetery, east of town.

Mrs. Gerdsen died at 12:15 p. m. Saturday at the Plainview Hospital and Clinic where she had been a patient one week.

She was born July 20, 1880, in Germany. She came to Canyon in 1909 from Nebraska. Her late husband, Henry E. Gerdsen, was a farmer.

She is survived by three sons, Fred, Herbert, and Henry, all of Canyon; a brother, Bernard Reinkehr of Germany and three grandchildren.

★ ★ ★ Later Developments

Monday afternoon, Potter County Sheriff Paul Gaitner said that a tiny radio transmitter was found taped underneath the desk in Roy Joe Stevens law office at 110 E. 5th in Amarillo.

He said the transmitter, which sends signals for short distances, was found Sunday by Stevens. He said Stevens had leaned back in his chair and his foot had touched the transmitter. It appears to be operated by batteries.

District Attorney Wayne Bagley said he had not heard of the discovery of the transmitter until a reporter in Amarillo called it to his attention Monday afternoon.

★ ★ ★ McCarthy Says

Attorney George McCarthy made the following statement after being cleared of the conspiracy to murder charge.

"I appreciate the confidence of the bar in my statement." He referred to his statement after being indicted, that there was no justification for the indictment in law or in the facts.

"I hope the people, as distinguished from lawyers, and there has been a distinction in the press, will realize that. This is not the end of this matter."

"Anything further will be in pleadings and procedures in court, where it should be."

McCarthy declined to say what other moves in the case would be.

★ ★ ★ 5,000 First Class Citizens in County

Nearly 5,000 Randall County citizens reached the first-class mark this year.

The tax office figures that 4,946 poll tax receipts were issued prior to the deadline Jan. 31. Last year, there were 5,645 poll tax receipts.

The tax office also issued about 400 exemption certificates for over and under age. Overage voters who live outside a city of 10,000 population do not need exemption certificates.

★ ★ ★ Little League Meets Tuesday

Fathers of Little League players and all men interested in Little League baseball are invited to attend a meeting of the league Tuesday night in the W. T. field-house.

Charter Commission Starts Writing Job

Assignments to write various parts of the proposed charter for the City of Canyon were made Thursday night by chairman Bob Wear at the first meeting of the city-appointed charter commission.

Members of the drafting committee are Gene McGlasson, Dr. Luther Hagard, David Matthis, Dr. W. J. Wooten Jr., Mrs. Clyde Warwick, Wear, and Bill Cherry. The drafting committee is slated for a report meeting Thursday, and the entire commission will meet Feb. 19 to review the work of the committee. Bill Davis was appointed to serve as secretary to the charter commission and to the drafting committee.

A tentative deadline of the last of February was set for having the charter completed, so that an election could be called for early April.

After the charter is written, it must be printed and a copy sent to each voter prior to the election. It is hoped that the ballot for the election can carry the names of candidates for the two extra commission posts the charter will propose. The charter would have to be adopted for the new commissioners to take office.

★ ★ ★ 3 Persons Injured In Highway Wreck

Three persons, including two West Texas State College students, were injured in a two-car wreck about 8:20 p. m. Friday north of Canyon about five miles.

Injured were John Walvoord, 24, and Carlynn Williams, 20, both students at WT, and Rodney Wheeler, 23, of Amarillo.

Walvoord suffered a possible broken pelvis, internal injuries and cuts on his face. Miss Williams received a broken leg, possible back injuries and facial scratches. She was a passenger in Walvoord's car.

Wheeler suffered chest injuries and facial lacerations. All three were taken to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo.

According to the Texas Highway Patrol officers, Walvoord's 1955 model car skidded broadside into a southbound pickup driven by Wheeler near a construction detour on the Amarillo expressway.

Walvoord's car was demolished, and the pickup sustained extensive damages, investigating officers said.

Drafting assignments include the articles covering Incorporation, Boundaries and General Corporate Powers; McGlasson and Cherry; Governing Body and Administration; Dr. Hagard; the City Manager, City Attorney, Budget, Capital Improvements, Bonds and Finance Administration; Matthis; City Property and Taxation; Dr. Wooten; Election, Initiative, Referendum, Recall, Admission and Submission of Charter to Voters; Mrs. Warwick.

Those assigned to the various articles are to study them and report to the drafting committee as a whole. The drafting committee will put the articles together and submit them to the charter commission.

Members of the commission, in addition to those on the drafting committee, are Mrs. Clay Cooper, Paul Lindsey, Dr. Crannell Tolliver, O. W. Parker, Hampton Lisle, John A. Williams and Levi Cole.

Youths Charged In Rape Case

Two students were arraigned Saturday on charges of raping a 16-year-old Amarillo girl in the vicinity of the VFW Friday night.

Gardie Malcolm Bryant, 18, of Hartley County, and David Keith, of Matador, 21, were both released on bond. Bryant is a student at Lubbock Christian College and Keith is a student at West Texas State.

The youths are accused of raping the girl while a dance was in progress at the VFW Hall. The girl, who was attending the dance with a girl friend, returned to Amarillo after the incident and reported it to the Amarillo Police Department.

Her parents were called, and she was examined at Northwest Texas Hospital by her family physician. She made a statement to Randall County deputies at the hospital.

Keith was arrested Saturday morning and Bryant was arrested Saturday afternoon.

★ ★ ★ Duster Brings Property Damage

Gusty winds, in puffs up to 60 miles an hour and dust swept the area Monday, causing property damage.

At the Ben Koch home near Umbarger, a barn was destroyed and wreckage was strewn for almost one-quarter of a mile. A chicken house was carried 20 feet by the strong wind before it was turned upside down on a barbed wire fence. The side of a circular steel granary was caved in.

Mrs. Koch estimated damage at $2700 or $2800. No other buildings were damaged.

A sign hanging in front of Radio Appliance blew through the right front plate glass window. A washing machine on display was damaged. Dale Killingsworth estimated damage at $500.

A brick fence on the west side of Dr. W. J. Wooten Jr.'s back yard was blown down. The fence was six feet high and 20 feet long. No estimates were available.

An elm tree with a trunk about six inches in diameter, was blown down in the back yard of Capt. Robert G. Pritchett. There was no other damage. Capt. Pritchett reported the tree had been planted about three months ago.

★ ★ ★ Chamber of Commerce Banquet

Nearly all of the tables were filled at the Canyon Chamber of Commerce banquet Friday night. About 250 residents and guests were present.

Formby Tells Canyon of Many Things

Touching on Western relations with Russia, the flavor of small towns and the work of the State Highway Commission, Chairman Marshall Formby spoke at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet Friday night and advocated the spread of Christianity to stop Communism, "better" towns rather than "bigger," and the economic value of tourists.

Formby told of a trip to Russia a couple of years ago, and said that Russian schools are not as good as ours, nor will the Russian scientists get ahead of ours.

"We believe God is on our side," he said, "but He's only on our side so long as we do as we should. The spreading of Christianity is our only hope for real peace in the world."

Formby cautioned that we should "not get excited and throw in the towel" when Russian advances are announced. "I get alarmed sometimes when I think how quick the people of this country can get excited."

Most of the fears of Russian superiority are unfounded and not necessary, he said.

Moving to talk of town development, Formby said that every town needs an inventory. "We talk too much about a bigger town and not enough about a better town," he said. He criticized the lack of thinking "big enough" in planning for the future. He said that if the people of the state had thought "big enough" 20 and 30 years ago, the state would not now be widening and expanding highway systems.

Formby said a town that does not provide what young people need in order to stay will die. Listing things that young people want in a town, he detailed:

Churches, schools, highways, streets, parks, good and modern stores, cleanliness and amusement.

He said that young people want an opportunity for a decent job and an opportunity for a chance to go into business later on. Most of all, young people want a chance to be a part of their hometown, Formby said.

He predicted that Canyon is entering a new era, and said he felt pride that he had some "small part in setting up things to help the growth." Formby said he predicted that Canyon and Amarillo would be connected someday by construction along the expressway. "It's happening sooner than I thought," he said.

"The smaller towns are the strongest hope for a strong, pleasant America," Formby said.

On the work of the highway department, the chairman of the commission said the department is trying to make highways safer, and last year was the safest so far.

Formby said that Texans drive 104 million miles a day, and the number of cars and miles driven is climbing much higher each year.

One of the aspects of better highways is an increase in tourist trade. Formby said a carload of tourists entering Texas spend as much money as a bale of cotton brings, and the tourists are "much easier picking."

Formby was introduced by C. I. (Stoney) Wall, president of Pioneer Natural Gas and immediate past president of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce. The invocation was offered by the Rev. Doyle Ragle. Presiding at the banquet was 1958 chamber president C. E. Thompson.

Special music was sung by Elsa Porter, accompanied by Mary Ruth McCulley, both of the music department at West Texas State.

The program of work for 1959 announced at the banquet on the printed program includes:

1. Develop and conduct city-wide clean-up campaign.
2. Study needs for housing and home finance.
3. Develop plans to welcome newcomers to Canyon.

4. Study needs and plan for city-wide parking.

5. Develop plans for Christmas decorating.

6. Develop plans and program for store front modernization.

7. Develop cooperative promotions and advertising.

8. Develop plans for Farmer-Businessman luncheon.

9. Conduct program of expansion of Chamber of Commerce membership and finance.

10. Conduct program of Chamber of Commerce public relations.

11. Provide training courses for retail employees.

12. Study needs for a community chest program.

13. Study state government relative to consolidation of counties.

14. Industrial promotions.

A summary of chamber work for 1958 was also provided. It included:

1. Sponsored the community forum from which the chamber of commerce program of work for 1958 was taken.
2. Our office and secretary served as an information bureau

A Dormitory Town

If the rate of construction set last month continues throughout the year, Canyon will have gone a long way toward becoming a dormitory for people who work somewhere else, mostly in Amarillo.

Last year, residence construction led commercial construction by about five to one. That is an indication that more people are living here, but businesses are keeping up with the growth.

January's building totals showed a residence to business ratio of eight to one. Permits totaling $79,700 were taken out for new homes and permits totaling $11,400 were taken out for commercial construction.

Neither of those commercial construction permits were for hard-goods stores. Neither was for dry goods, or groceries. Neither was for the service concerns we need so badly in every day life. Both were for concerns that would most likely be classified in the entertainment field. One was for a "Lotaburger" business and the other was for a "Kreme Kone."

In this day, people find that type of business necessary, and the addition of them is welcome in Canyon. But both are indicative of growth in the number of residents, and not necessarily an indication of growing business.

If January's rates of construction held true throughout the year, Canyon would have seen the addition of 96 new homes worth $956,400. The town would have seen $136,800 worth of commercial construction. We'll bet that Canyon will come closer to the goal of new homes than it will to the goal of commercial buildings.

And if that turns out to be true, Canyon will be a dormitory town.

City Needs Help

(This editorial is borrowed from the Canadian Record, where an election has been called to change the form of city government from commission to commission-manager.—The Editor.)

As this is written, petitions are being circulated in Canadian asking that a special city election be called on the question of authorizing the City Commission to employ a full-time city manager.

If an election is to be called we hope that it will be done and the issue settled before the March 7 filing deadline for candidates for city offices . . . because the outcome of this election may have an important bearing on the willingness, or unwillingness, of qualified citizens to offer their services in city government. (The election was called for Feb. 20 after the editorial was written, according to a front-page story in the Record.)

Mayor Owens has already removed himself as a potential candidate for re-election . . . on the sound and sensible grounds that he can't continue to spare the time from his personal business which conscientious attention to city affairs demands of the Mayor under the present system.

These same compelling reasons are likely to keep other qualified and conscientious citizens from becoming candidates for election to the City Commission.

Those who have served on the City Commission in recent years, and those who are serving now, are well aware of the amount of time required for purely administrative details . . . the day-to-day and hour-to-hour decisions which must be made in the operation of a business the size of the City of Canadian.

Such administrative detail needs the attention of a full-time employee trained in this type of management . . . but under our present system, authority to handle these details cannot be delegated by the Commissioners but must remain their personal responsibility.

This is the primary purpose of the Commission-Manager plan . . . to permit the City Commission to employ a qualified person to handle the full-time duties of administration under the direction and control of the Commission, freeing the elected officials from time-consuming routine work (for which they are not paid) but leaving them in control of the government.

Essentially, the relationship of a city manager to his city commission is the same as that of a school superintendent to his board of trustees. It seems strange to us that a system which has worked so well, and is accepted without question, in the operation of one local governmental unit should be viewed with so much suspicion and distrust when applied to another.

I GIVE YOU
TEXAS
By BOYCE HOUSE

In the Old World, there are buildings which have stood for generations. Here are the courts where Erskine pleaded; there is the abbey where poets are buried and kings are crowned. In this house, Carlyle wrote "Sartor Resartus" and, in that mansion, Tennyson wrote "Tears, Idle Tears." One may stand where a great man lived and wrought; and so the visitor can almost feel the presence of the unseen tenant.

But in America we build so that, after a few fleeting years, we can tear down and build anew — bigger and brighter, but with no memories enriching rooms and no clustering traditions, like ancient ivy, about hallowed walls.

It was in 1931 that I came to Fort Worth — not long ago as they measure time in Paris and London, much less Rome, with its columns and corridors that knew the Caesars; but, in less than 30 years, the City Hall, of gray rock, and its companion, the fire station with its bell-tower, have disappeared. The Carnegie Library, of red stone, and the sprawling station of the Texas and Pacific with its minaret are ghosts, too.

Gone is the brick building at the corner of Seventh and Main with its small cafe displaying the sign, "Arizona Chili," a favorite eating place, by the way, with James V. Allred when he was governor.

Vanished with the building is, of course, the niche in its wall, forming a concrete seat, where there sat, alone, a gray-headed, leathery-faced man whose gnarled hands had put down more oil wells than any other driller in the annals of petroleum.

Change is the order of the day.

"The highest reward for man's toil is not what he gets for it, but what he becomes by it." — John Ruskin. (Maybe there's some consolation in this $25 a month job.)

Interurbans, back in 1931, ran between Fort Worth and Dallas. You could sit in a swivel chair and watch the scenery go by at 45 miles an hour. Street cars clanged along the avenues of Fort Worth. Across the street from the Texas Hotel, an unoccupied office bore the sign of an oil company, the "Duke" in the name revealing that it was one of the many ventures in which investors entered so hopefully in the brief period of the Desdemona (Hogtown) boom of 1918-20 which was ushered in by the Duke gusher. Boom, company, sign and building — all are gone.

I can remember the native of Greece who operated a peanut stand, with its whistle and its puppet turning the roaster, across from the Star-Telegram.

And a pathetic former fighter, punch-drunk, sold sacks of peanuts on the street. Men who had cheered him, remembered, handed him a nickel and walked on, a bit saddened.

What Our Neighbors Say . . .

Scissor Snippings

Ben Ezzell in the Canadian Record: "Two houseflies were conversing, and the first said: 'Sylvester, aren't people funny?' 'Yes, George,' said Sylvester, 'but what made you think about it just now?'"

"Well," replied George, "I was just thinking how much money they spent building a beautiful ceiling like this and then they walk on the floor."

There's a moral in that story, but finding it all depends on your point of view.

Harold Hudson in the Ochiltree County Herald: We bought a household item recently, purchasing it in Perryton after being tempted to buy it out of town at a saving of about $40. We reminded ourselves that our business depends on local merchants and that a dollar spent in Perryton circulates around and eventually we have a chance to get part of it back. All well and good. Imagine our feelings when we received our statement from the local firm for this particular item of merchandise—the statement and the envelope it came in were both printed out of town! Don't ask a printer how he knows where stuff is printed. We can tell by looking. Just like a rancher can tell his own cattle by looking.

Maybe it's time for us to write another "trade at home" editorial. Don't believe we have reached everybody with the last one.

Jimmie Gillentine in the Hereford Brand: The bankers got a kick out of a little girl who was given a savings account for Christmas and came down to fill out the form the other day. She went along OK until she came to the blank which says, "Name of previous bank." The 10-year-old thought a second, then scribbled "piggy."

Paul Crume in the Dallas Morning News: The government has been closing down a lot of small post offices, of course. Evidently, it's making some people nervous. Bill Cowan says that Dale Buckley, a transportation officer from the Fort Worth Post Office, recently made a trip to a small town for a routine inspection of a little fourth-class post office.

One of the town's businessmen came in, and the local postmaster introduced him to Buckley.

"I think you're making a heck of a mistake," said the businessman in high agitation, before Buckley had got a chance to acknowledge the introduction or explain his visit, "and I can tell you right now that I'm going to fight it!"

NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS
OF THE 18TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

The Farm Message

The President sent the Congress last week another farm message. It was in keeping with former farm messages he has sent to the Congress in that it gave a blanket endorsement to the policies of Ezra Taft Benson, the Secretary of Agriculture. In fact, the President used the memorandum submitted to him by Secretary Benson as a part of his message.

The message actually had two primary points. The first point being the extensive criticism by the President of the present plight in which the farmer finds himself.

The second point is that the President underwrites the practices of the Department of Agriculture under Mr. Benson which have placed the American farmer in his present plight—and, incidentally have placed the government in its present position insofar as surpluses are concerned. The President seems to forget that Mr. Benson has been in office for seven years and has had full control and operation of the Department of Agriculture.

He has put over his recommendations and has refused to accept the recommendations of Congress on numerous occasions. In fact, when the Congress undertook to force the will of Congress on the Secretary of Agriculture, the President vetoed the bill.

It will be remembered that Mr. Benson set up the soil bank and took great pride in claiming to be its author; yet, like many of his recommendations, he is now trying to sever all connections between his name and the soil bank.

He has had full control and operation, insofar as the administration of the Department of Agriculture has been concerned for the seven years referred to, and the President has stood by him and given him every power he sought. Under the circumstances, it is interesting to note that under the stewardship of Ezra Taft Benson, the costs of the farm programs did increase from $306 million in 1952 to $1 billion 936 million in 1956, according to the Agricultural Statistics published by the Department of Agriculture.

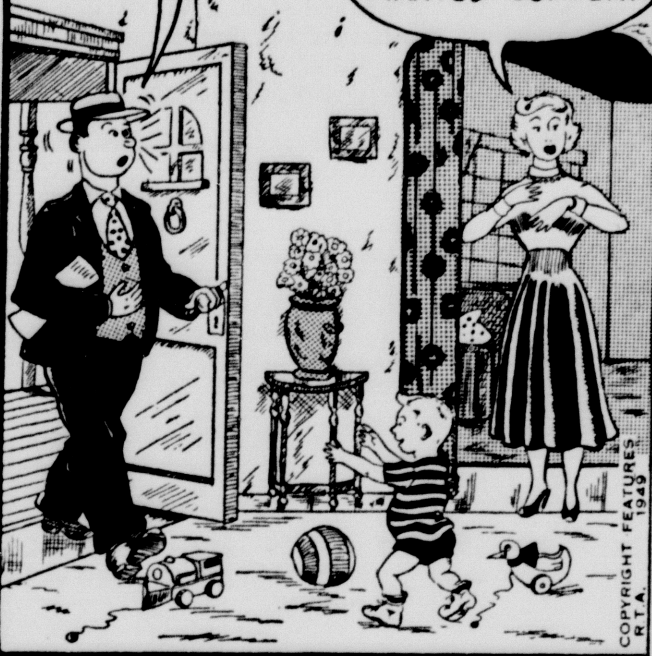

This publication was under the stewardship of the same Mr. Benson, so they are his figures. The cost remained well above $1 billion in 1957 and 1958. It is also well to note that under the stewardship of Mr. Benson, the Department of Agriculture has increased its employees between 1952 and 1959 by almost 25 per cent.

In other words, Secretary of Agriculture Benson is now employing 18,500 more people on the public payroll than were employed

Wool Deadline Comes March 31

The marketing year under the 1958 wool program ends March 31. Doyle G. Thomas, office manager of the Randall County ASC, reminded farmers this week.

The wool program is conducted under the National Wool Act of 1954. Payments under the 1958 program will be made this summer when payment rates are determined on the basis of national average prices received by producers for shorn wool during the 1958 marketing year. Any marketings after March 31 will be eligible under the 1959 program.

If any condition concerning the sale is not settled by March 31, the sale will not be considered completed. Title must have passed to the buyer, the wool must have been delivered to the buyer (either physically or through documents), and the last of the factors (price per pound, weight, yield, etc.) needed to determine the total purchase price must be available.

Applications for payment under the 1958 program must be filed with the county ASC office not later than April 30, 1959.

More Americans should do this.

It would be most helpful and, in many instances, most refreshing to have the grass roots views of the people delivered in person.

Management Group Will Be Organized

A chapter of the Society for Advancement of Management is being organized on the campus of West Texas State College among business and economics students.

A meeting for organization has been set Friday at 7 p. m. in Room 304, Administration Building. Sponsors of the group will be three instructors in the School of Business, Glenn Ross, Charles Lee and Olan Lehman.

The Society for Advancement of Management is organized on about 150 college and university campuses in the United States and Canada, and nearly 100 "senior chapters" for business and industrial graduates are found in the United States, Venezuela, Puerto Rico and Canada.

The organization is a professional group for management in industry, commerce, government and education. Its objectives include bringing together executives in business and students preparing to enter the field; serving as a medium for exchange and distribution of information on problems, policies, and methods of industry and management.

The WT chapter expects to promote field trips to area businesses and industry, and to bring well-known speakers to the campus to discuss business problems.

Membership dues include $1.50 for initial membership and $2 a semester.

People who think only of themselves do not think enough.

by the Department of Agriculture when he took over to settle the farm problems. It would seem to me that if the present Administration wanted to solve the farm problem, it would practice some of the business principles that it preaches.

For instance, the operators of any business would certainly have difficulty in explaining to the board of directors why a manager should be kept on the payroll, who had increased the labor force by almost 25 per cent and multiplied the cost of a program by more than five times.

Many feel that the President is not primarily at fault, even though he is a farmer. It is beginning to be suspected that the problems of gentlemen farmers differ from those of dirt farmers. I do not question the fact that the President is a good man, but I do point out that there are thousands of farmers throughout this nation who are also good men (both dirt and gentlemen).

An Interesting Occurrence
During the hearings on the Hawaii Statehood Bill, the committee staff received a call from a person who asked to be heard in opposition to statehood. The person identified herself as Mrs. Joseph Fair of Philadelphia, Pa. She was told by the staff when and where to appear, which she did and testified.

She was a young Negro woman about 25 years old, obviously well educated, perfectly mannered and well versed on her subject matter. When she concluded her testimony I asked her what prompted her to come before the Committee and how she found out where to come.

She said that she was representing only herself, and when she heard that the hearings were in session, decided to come forward and express her views as an American citizen. She said she did not know where to go or what to do, but called the telephone operator at the Capitol and told her the problem. The telephone operator referred her to the Interior Committee, and she was, in turn, referred to the proper member of the staff who gave her the information as to when and where she could be heard.

I put this in this newsletter in order to impress upon the American people that it is not difficult to have the opportunity of voicing your opinion before the committees of Congress. Here was a woman who had no idea where to begin; yet, within a period of a very few hours after she had made known her desire to testify on a matter concerning the people of this nation, she was before one of the

CHEVY'S NEW HI-THRIFT 6

More miles are back in a gallon of regular-grade gas—up to 10% more—and Chevy's new Hi-Thrift 6 engine puts them there. It also gives you more "git" in the speeds you drive the most.

Here's an engine that always seems able to coax extra miles out of a tank of regular-grade gas. In fact, if you're one of those drivers who keep tab on things like gas mileage, you'll soon see for yourself that this new Hi-Thrift 6 gets up to 10% more miles a gallon.

Another thing you'll like about this 135-h.p. 6 is the extra pep it gives you for passing and climbing hills. This is due to higher torque at normal speeds.

It may be hard to believe anything that looks and moves like this '59 Chevy can be such a stickler for economy. But—whether you pick the Hi-Thrift 6 or a vim-packed V8—this is just one more reason Chevy's the car that's wanted for all its worth. Stop by your dealer's and see.

The smart switch is to the '59 Chevy!

County Cotton Meeting Slated

The 1959 cotton program will be discussed at a county-wide meeting tomorrow night at 7:30 in the Farm Bureau building.

The meeting will be conducted by the Randall County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee and Doyle Thomas, ASC office manager, in cooperation with the other agricultural agencies in Randall County. All cotton producers in the county are urged to attend, according to John Brazzil, county agent.

Topics for discussion are selection of plan A or B, price support rates and methods, release and re-appointment of acreage, and allotments in general.

Randall County will have approximately 2,000 acres allotted to cotton in 1959. These acres are distributed among 193 farms.

"The first month's sugar,
The second month's pie,
The third month you can work
And so can I."

This ancient bit of verse, written for newlyweds, might apply to the usual pace of legislative sessions, with short meetings and long weekends in the early months, followed by an around-the-clock grind. But this year lawmakers are being urged to cut short the honeymoon.

House Committees

After Carr defeated Rep. Joe Burkett Jr. of Kerrville for speaker, suspense centered on how Burkett supporters would fare in Carr's committee lists.

Outcome was that Carr men, naturally, received all choice posts and approximately 86 per cent of committee chairmanships. Of the 43 House committees, 37 are headed by Carr supporters, four by definite Burkett supporters and two by persons whose vote was not known.

Senate Committees

Less dramatic, but fully as important to legislative processes, were Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey's selections of Senate committees.

Top posts are concentrated among veteran Senators, experienced in government, and in accord with the conservative philosophy predominant in the Upper House. Heaviest responsibility will be in the hands of Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo, State Affairs chairman, and Sen. William S. Fly of Victoria, Finance chairman.

Gas "Explosion" Due

Battle lines are being drawn swiftly and heavy artillery rolled up for the fight over Gov. Price Daniel's tax program, particularly the gas severance tax.

Industry spokesmen criticize the governor's program as "short-sighted" and deplore the increasing of levies on sources already being taxed. Gas men promised to fight the severance tax, if passed, all the way to the U. S. Supreme Court.

But Governor Daniel declared he'd gotten many more bouquets than brick bats for his plan. Only opposition, he said, was from those who want to tax "everything from shirts and shoes to bassinets and baby buggies."

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING AMARILLO AIR FORCE BASE ZONING

Notice is hereby given to all persons owning, claiming, or interested in property located in Potter, Randall, or Carson Counties of the State of Texas, that construction height restrictions and certain other building restrictions are proposed for an area within a fifty thousand foot radius of the center point of the principal runway at Amarillo Air Force Base by the Joint Airport Zoning Board of the City of Amarillo, Randall County, Carson County, and Potter County. Zoning restrictions are being proposed under the Airport Zoning Act, Session Laws of 1947, 50th Legislature, Page 784, Chapter 391.

Zoning restrictions will include a height limitation of 500 feet over the entire 50,000 foot radius known as the turning zone surface area, height restrictions from 150 to 500 feet in the conical surface zone, and graduated height restrictions up to a maximum of 500 feet in the approach zone of each runway. In addition, certain use restrictions are proposed including production of unsafe smoke, gas or odor fumes, and restrictions on the construction of places of public assembly, schools, churches, hospitals, apartment houses, and congested housing developments in certain areas in the approach zone.

Proposed zoning restrictions are not retroactive and do not require the alteration of any existing structures.

Public hearing will be held in the Commission Chamber of the City of Amarillo in the City Auditorium, 5th at Lincoln, at Amarillo, Texas, commencing at 7:30 P. M., on Monday, March 2, 1959, and shall be by and before the Airport Zoning Commission of the Joint Airport Zoning Board for Amarillo Air Force Base.

All persons owning property or having any interest in property involved in this airport zoning shall have the right at such hearing to be heard on any matter as to which hearing is a prerequisite to contest the zoning boundaries and restrictions to be established in regard to their accuracy, sufficiency, regularity, and validity of the proceedings by which such restrictions are proposed to be established. The Airport Zoning Commission upon completion of the public hearing shall then submit their findings and their recommendations to the Joint Airport Zoning Board for final adoption.

MARK T. MILES, Chairman
Joint Airport Zoning Board for Amarillo Air Force Base

have joined him, says Governor Daniel, in a fight against President Eisenhower's proposed 1 1/2-cent raise of the federal gasoline tax.

This tax field should be left to the states, the governor believes. Texas Highway Commission, he pointed out, is asking for a one cent raise in the state gasoline tax to help pay mounting road building bills.

Under the present federal aid formula, Daniel estimated that with a 1 1/2-cent federal tax increase, Texans would pay $137,000,000 more in gasoline taxes than would be returned to the state for highway building.

Grist for the Session

Most of the bills which will be stirring up the air in the next few weeks already are in the mills. Among them are these measures which would:

PROVIDE FOR PARTY REGISTRATION by voters at the time they pay their poll taxes, by Rep. Jamie Clements of Crockett. Only persons registered as party members would be allowed to participate in primaries and conventions.

RAISE TEACHER PAY by approximately $800 a year, and lengthen school year to 190 days, by Rep. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi. This follows recommendation of Hale-Aikin school study committee, of which Hale was vice chairman.

INCREASE LIQUOR TAXES from $1.40 to $2.50 a gallon, by Rep. Pete LaVelle of Texas City. This was one of Governor Daniel's recommendations to bring in an estimated $18,000,000.

TAX CORPORATION INCOME on a graduated scale, by Rep. Dean Johnston of Houston, to raise an estimated $20,000,000 annually.

INCREASE TRUCK WEIGHT limit from 52,420 to 72,000 pounds, by Rep. R. L. Strickland of San Antonio. Same bill was defeated after stiff fight last session.

REQUIRE OPEN MEETINGS by all governmental agencies, except where they are now required by law to be confidential, by Rep. Truett Latimer of Abilene.

CHANGE PRIMARY ELECTION dates from July and August to the first and fourth Tuesdays in May, by Rep. Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio.

GIVE ALL CITIES of more than 10,000 full authority to regulate wages and hours of firemen and policemen, by Rep. Ben D. Suderth of Brownwood. This is a matter of sharp controversy. A counter-measure, introduced by Rep. Bob Johnson of Dallas, would reduce hours and increase pay for firemen and policemen.

PROVIDE A NEW University of Texas medical branch. Rival bills are being pushed — one by the Austin delegation directing that the school be built in Austin, and another by the San Antonians, specifying their home city.

PROHIBIT LABOR UNIONS from using regular dues and assessments for political purposes, by Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas. Unions would be required to file an annual audited financial statement with the Secretary of State.

LOAN STATE FUNDS to communities to help establish local homes for old people, a constitutional amendment proposed by Rep. Murray Watson of Mart.

SET BUTTERFAT CONTENT of milk offered for sale at a minimum of 3 1/4 per cent, by Rep. Steve Burgess of Nacogdoches.

RAISE UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS from $28 to $40 a week and extend pay period from 24 to 39 weeks, by Rep. Roger Daily of Houston.

REQUIRE EMPLOYERS to recognize a collective bargaining agent supported by a majority of employees, by Reps. Clyde Miller and Robert Eckhardt of Houston.

ALLOW HIGHER SPEED limits on Texas highways. One proposal, by Rep. Bill Jones of Dallas, would raise maximum from 60 to 70 m.p.h. Another, by Reps. Tom James of Dallas and Louis Anderson of Midland, would permit Highway Commission to regulate maximum up or down, as road conditions justify.

ABOLISH POLL TAXES as a requisite for voting, by Reps. B. H. Dewey of Bryan and Maude Isaacks of El Paso.

HAVE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE committee members elected by direct primaries, rather than selected at the state convention, by Rep. Dewey.

REPEAL THE LAW requiring that a local vote be taken before a school can desegregate, by Rep. Don Gladden of Fort Worth.

MAKE ARLINGTON STATE College a four-year school, by Sens. Doyle Willis of Fort Worth and George Parkhouse of Dallas. Similar proposals were put forward for John Tarleton College at Stephenville and Midwestern University, Wichita Falls.

ALLOW LEGISLATORS to set their own pay by a two-thirds record vote, a constitutional amendment by Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo. Hardeman was a leader in the defeat of the last pay raise amendment.

BAN AUTOMOBILE SELLING on Sunday, by Sen. Ray Roberts of McKinney.

court and that he had nothing officially to do with it. He said he knew that Judge Jordan had a special venire ordered to report, and knew that there was a possibility of either a motion to dismiss or a hearing in the case against McCarthy, and offered his services as a special judge if "by so doing I could accommodate Judge Jordan and all the others."

Judge Nelson said, "It is not my case and I'm not having anything to do with it."

Col. Simpson then said, "I'm using this as a sounding board for the press." He said that while the second motion, the one presented in court, was being written and typed, he and McCarthy and the other two attorneys had been in Judge Nelson's chambers. "We talked with you about it and a number of things, with the understanding that it would be put up to you," Col. Simpson said.

The attorneys said they were given copies of the motion, and later were told that it had been presented to Judge Jordan and the Judge had signed it.

"We apologize to you because we thought you were going to handle it, and we were talking to you in your chambers about it," Col. Simpson said.

"I was just trying to help. It makes no difference to me," Judge Nelson answered.

"We have no objection to Judge Jordan signing the order, but we believe we should have been notified and allowed to be present," Col. Simpson said.

At that point, Bagley arrived, and said that the motion had been filed in the clerk's office in the presence of the attorneys and the press, and that he went from the clerk's office to Judge Jordan's courtroom.

The group then broke up. In later interviews, Bagley said he thought the defendant's attorneys knew the matter was in the 47th District Court, and that the motion would be presented there.

The Background

The background of the murder conspiracy indictment dismissed yesterday and of the bribery conspiracy indictment yet to come to trial is this:

An Amarillo railroad worker, Nick Bargas, is accused of murdering Louis T. Macias on May 26 in Amarillo. He was indicted and Judge Roy Joe Stevens was retained as his attorney.

The case was set for trial on Oct. 27, when a special venire was ordered to report. On that morning, before the selection of a jury began, Donald E. Heard, a member of the venire, and Hubert Carlton Heard, his brother, told of an attempt to influence the vote of Donald Heard if he became a member of the jury.

They named Edwin Dale West as the man who approached Hubert Heard in the attempt. As a result, the Bargas trial was continued until the January term of court, now in session. It is expected to start today.

On Oct. 30, West was indicted for attempting to bribe a juror. On Thanksgiving night, Judge Stevens was arrested on bribery charges. The Potter County Grand Jury, assisted by four state intelligence officers and the district attorneys staff, investigated the bribery attempt further.

On Jan. 14, Judge Stevens and four other men were indicted by the grand jury for conspiracy to bribe a juror. Those indicted with the judge were Joe Brock, the judge's law associate, Ray Tucker,

WT Military Ball Will Be Open To Students and Faculty Only

The Military Ball, at which the Glenn Miller Orchestra will play Feb. 16, at West Texas State College, is open only to WT students, according to Lt. Col. Edward L. Lindsey, professor of military science and tactics.

In an earlier announcement about the appearance of the famed band, it was stated that the dance would be open to the public. Col. Lindsey said that it would be impossible to accommodate more than just the student body, faculty, and Amarillo Center students of WT. "We do wish to especially invite students attending the Amarillo Center, and the campus students and faculty at WT," Col. Lindsey said.

The band will play for the annual semi-formal dance held for the Reserve Officers' Training Corps cadets at WT. It will be in the college cafeteria, and admission will be $3 a couple.

3 Speech Profs To Attend Meet

Three members of the West Texas State College speech department will attend a meeting Saturday of the Texas Educational Theatre Association.

Dr. Crannell Tolliver, head of the WT department, will represent the Texas Speech Association of which he is president. William A. Moore, director of dramatics, and Robert L. Antrim, technical director, are also expected to attend.

The three men will visit college and university theatre buildings and little theatre buildings in several cities enroute to the conference. They are planning color schemes and draperies and other equipment for the auditorium of the new fine arts building, which will be completed during the summer at WT.

Proclamation

The month of February is an important time in America's history, being the birth-month of two great Presidents, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

Never in the history of our Nation have the knowledge and appreciation of American traditions and institutions been more important. In these times of constant stress and numerous problems, both foreign and domestic, each citizen has a responsibility to become more aware of his heritage.

The strength of our people is reflected by the understanding of American History. An appreciation of the heritage passed down to us by our forefathers promotes better citizenship and gives us a sound foundation upon which to base current decisions.

To stimulate interest in our National history the Daughters of the American Revolution and other organizations plan programs each year during the month of February. These are worthwhile endeavors that deserve the support of all the people.

THEREFORE, I, as Mayor of Canyon, do join with Price Daniel, governor of the State of Texas, and hereby designate the month of February, 1959, as AMERICAN HISTORY MONTH in Canyon and urge the cooperation of all citizens in this observance.

Charles Donnell
Mayor of Canyon

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

Some cooperators have made application for pipe lines and tanks for 1959. They are Calvin Casey, Dona L. Stone, F. E. Lesly, Guy H. Hayes, Joe Billy Wise, Jackey Meeks, John W. Byrd, Arthur C. Miller; these are for underground pipe lines. E. L. Barnett, Joe B. Cox and R. B. Turner made application for ponds.

The pipe line will conserve water and also make irrigation easier for the farmer. By making application with the A.S.C., the farmer will receive part payment on the line. The government pays about one-half on the line. This does not include risers, vents or stands. The aluminum pipe is also extra and does not carry a government payment.

The ponds, dams or dug-outs carry a payment of 10 cents per cubic yard of earth moved. This is usually about one half the cost. If you need a pond, or dam make an application with the A.S.C. office and the Soil Conservation Service will be glad to stake out the tank and check it for completion.

The design and installation of pipe lines is also checked by the Soil Conservation Service to see if it meets the requirements and assure the farmer that the system will function properly.

After waiting a long while for his ship to come in many a man compromises for a schooner.

ARROW

fashion gift for Valentine's Day

Here's the sort of flattery a man loves to receive. The kind you'll find in Arrow Glen, the popular soft collar shirt fashioned with new shorter points and modern link cuffs. "Mitoga" tailored in fine "Sanforized" broadcloth.

P. S. Spark his gift with an Arrow Tie or two, in Valentine Red.

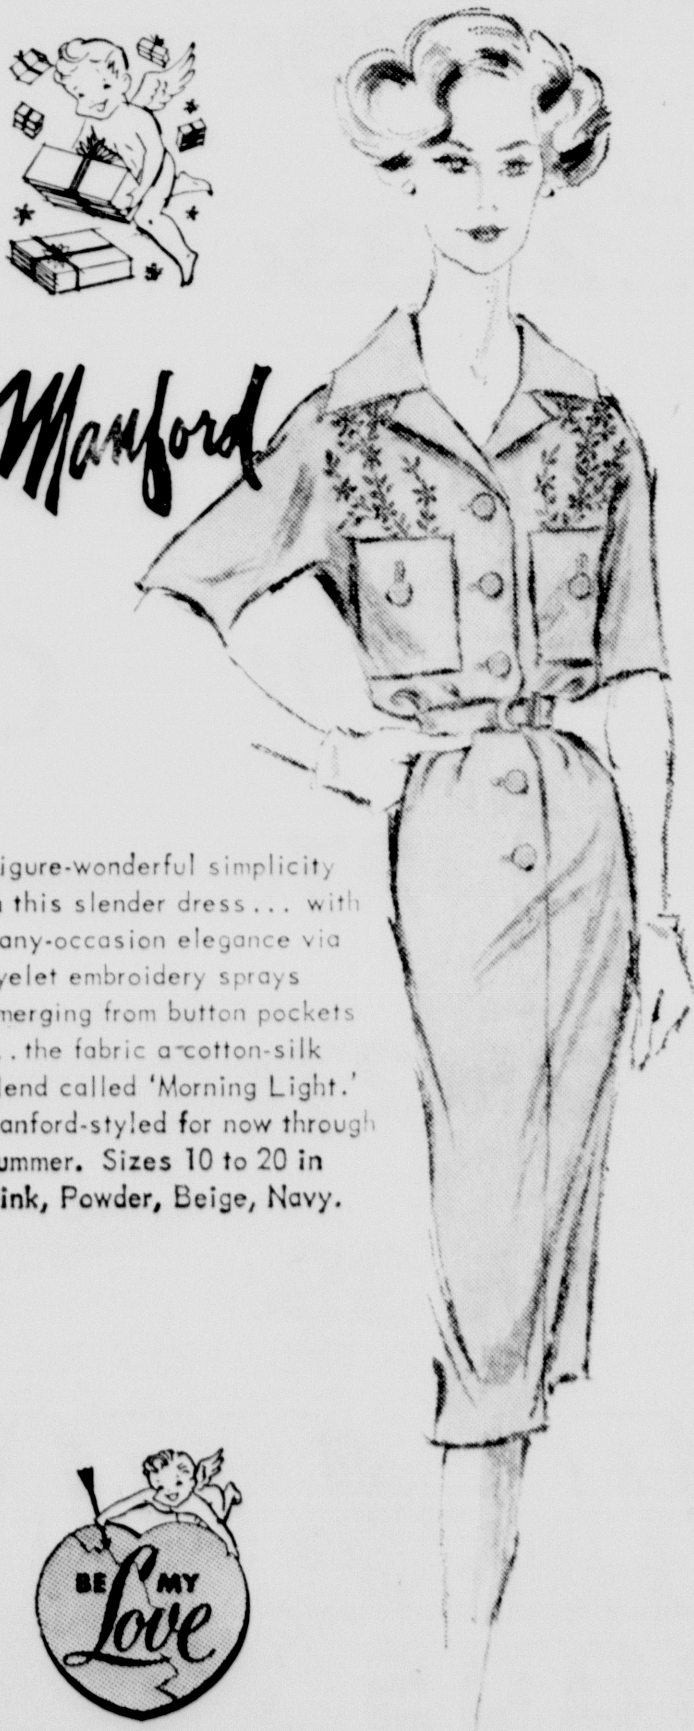

Figure-wonderful simplicity in this slender dress... with many-occasion elegance via eyelet embroidery sprays emerging from button pockets... the fabric a cotton-silk blend called 'Morning Light.' Manford-styled for now through summer. Sizes 10 to 20 in Pink, Powder, Beige, Navy.
